POLICE DEPARTMENT.

Notice, dated the 24th January 1896.

A reward of Rs. 20 is offered by G. Tirunarnaiengar, Deputy Amildar of the Huliyar Sub-Taluk, for the recovery of the undermentioned property stated to have been kept in a railway bag which was dropped by him between Banasandra and Settihalli while going in a cart from the Banasandra Railway Station on the night of the 19th December 1895 :—

	Rs.	a.	p.
1 Kornad red sire with red stripes (new)	6	12	0
1 Silk gaddemadi peta of Chiknayakanhalli (new)	25	0	0
1 Salem white turban with lace border (once washed)	12	0	0
1 White turban with lace border (rather old)	8	0	0
1 Chowkali mixture of silk and wool long coat (Kathalé color).. lined with alpaca	15	0	0
1 Salem laced "shawl" (new)	6	0	0
Total..	72	12	0

Notice, dated 27th January 1896.

A reward of Rs. 50 is offered by C. Krishnaswami Rao for any information as to the whereabouts of his brother-in-law D. Sakaram Rao, Clerk, Sub-Judge's Court, Bangalore, who had proceeded to Madras about the end of October last, and was studying privately for the B. A. Examination in his lodgings in the "Coorg Lodge," No. 297, Thumboo Chetty Street, Black Town, Madras, and who is missing since the 6th January 1896.

Description of D. Sakharam Rao.

Name—D. Sakaram Rao, grandson of the late Mr. Gundopant of Bangalore.
Caste—Madhva Desastha Brahmin.
Father's Name—Murti Rao.
Residence—No. 10, Siddikatta, Bangalore.
Age—32 years.
Height—5 feet, 4½ inches.
Complexion—Copper colored, but has lately grown swarthy.
Appearance—Round face; stout; partially bald, with a few grey hairs.
Marks of identification—A deep scar in the middle of the forehead, and nearly reaching the right eye-brow. Also a scar under the chin.
Habits—Rather retired, but very courteous and affable, and a man of strong feeling.

Talks Mahratti, (mother tongue), Kanarese and English, the last pretty fluently; can also talk a little Tamil, Hindustani and Telugu.

On the morning of the 6th instant he took a loan of Rs. 5 from a friend in the "Students' Home" attached to the Christian College, and stated to his friends that he was going to Bangalore and would return in a couple of days. He got into a jatka and told the driver to drive fast to the Central Station. Is supposed to have gone wrong in the head.

K. P. PUTTANNA CHETTI, for Inspr. Genl. of Police in Mysore.

The 22nd January 1896.

Description of the dead body of a girl found near the Guthalli, New road, Bangalore, on the 18th January 1896.

Age—Eight or nine years.
Height—Three feet, 6 inches.
Complexion—Dark and clear.
Color of eyes—Unknown.
Color of hair—Dark. Plentiful and about 8 inches long, hanging loose.
Build—Slim (body in good condition).
Face—Disfigured, beyond identification.
Ears—Both bored.
Caste—Muhammadan or Pariah.
Special mark of identification.—On the body—Nil.

Wearing two guilt lac bangles, one on the right and one on the left arm. An old lungi, red ground, with yellow flowered pattern, torn about the edges and waist string broken.

Note.—The photographs of the corps taken are available at the offices of the Superintendent of Police, Bangalore District, and the City Police Inspector, Bangalore, for inspection.

C. DEVARAJ ARAS, Supt. of Police, Bangalore.